ORGANIZATION OF THE YOUNG MEN'S FREMONT CLUB.

THE YOUNG MEN FOR ACTION.

The Camp House witnessed a cheering scene last night, as the people gathered to attend the organization of the Young Men's Fremont Club. By 8½ o'clock the large room was well filled with active Fremonters, and the good work was going bravely on. Gen'l PAINE presided at the preliminary organization, and A. J. AIKENS was Secretary pro tem. The following committee was appointed to prepare the Constitution and By-Laws: SAML. EDSON, A. H. HIELFIELDT, J. F. HAYDEN, E. W. CARPENTER, S. M. BOOTH. The committee returned and the meeting was ably addressed by E. D. HOLTON Esq., urging the young men to action. His remarks were received with prolonged applause.

Gen. PAINE next introduced Rev. Dr. EATON, President of the Madison University, N. Y., who proceeded to give the young men a most spirited and eloquent address upon the subject of their duties at the present time. The speaker said that although of the clerical order, he considered the time as arrived when issues of so much importance were pending that a member could take part in them without repelling a lecture upon clerical proprieties.

The Dr. alluded to the private characters of the candidates, their religious views, &c. One he said was this, another that—and one was said to be a Catholic, "although in my opinion a greater falsehood was never uttered; but if I KNEW HE WAS A CATHOLIC HE SHOULD HAVE MY VOTE." Tremendous cheers greeted this remark.

The eloquent speaker continued for some time his stirring appeal to the young men to do their whole duty; and was applauded to the echo when he closed.

Mr. EDSON from the committee, reported the list of officers, and GREGOR MENZEL, our candidate for State Elector, a German by birth, and thorough American by adoption, was chosen President. He assumed his seat with some brief but manly remarks, in the course of which he appealed to his countrymen to take, as one man, the stand for Freedom which he had taken, and to make their votes tell against Slavery.

E. L. BUTTRICK, Esq., followed with a telling speech of about 20 minutes, carrying the hearts of the audience with his spirited speech.

WINFIELD SMITH followed, in response to calls upon him, and gave good reasons why a good democrat should become a first rate Fremont man. He too was loudly cheered.

The meeting was further addressed by S. M. BOOTH and Mr. VACHER, and adjourned at a late hour, having proved that the Young Men of Milwaukee have good timber among them for the platform, and that they are ready for the contest for Freedom.

The Speaker and the State Plunderers.

The various apologists and defenders of the men whose evil deeds and gross neglect, when in charge of the State and School Funds, have just been exposed, received a scorching yesterday from Speaker HULL and Judge POTTER of the Assembly. It was clear enough to any sane mind that very much of the real truth must be kept in the back-ground, when such old Bunsow Democrats as Messrs. Hull, Greulich and Gray signed their names to the Report, as they would naturally desire to screen their friends. Nothing but clear, palpable facts would bring them to sign the Report, we say; and when charged with making a report full of falsehoods, it is but natural, too, that they should turn upon their assailants. We are glad that the Barstow democratic presses have driven them to it. Let the people see the whole truth, and take warning.

DISTRESSING ACCIDENT AT CHICAGO.—The Lake Shore R. R. Train, last evening brought a report that a vessel passing down Chicago river, yesterday morning, run down and sunk the ferry scow, near the mouth of the river, causing the loss of some fifteen lives. We had no other particulars.

Editorial Correspondence of the Sentinel.

Speaker Hull down on the Plunderers.

MADISON, Sept. 19th.

The Land Grant continues to occupy all thoughts and tongues here, to the exclusion of nearly everything else, and has attracted to the Capitol a large number of self-sacrificing and public spirited gentlemen, from different quarters of the State; all prepared, if need be, to take service under the grant and share in the division of the spoils. The committee of twenty-one, who have charge of the subject, make but slow progress. The main features of the bill are, indeed, agreed upon, but the details are not so readily arranged. It is settled that there are to be two companies and two roads, as the terms of the grant contemplate; and it is pretty certain that the starting points only will be designated in the bill, leaving each company free to build its road by the best and most direct route to the terminus on Lake Superior. But beyond these general features, all is yet uncertain.

There is an infinite variety of opinions and contrariety of interest, about the names of the corporators, the conditions to be imposed upon the Companies entrusted with the grant, and the compensation to be made for rights already accrued, or supposed to be accrued, under previous acts of the legislature. Thus the select Committee was wholly occupied, all yesterday afternoon in discussing what amount should be paid to the St. Croix and Lake Superior R. R. Company, who hold a charter from the State, and have expended probably a few thousand dollars in making preliminary surveys, purchasing depot grounds and other incidental matters. This Company modestly claim the round sum of four Hundred Thousand Dollars—to come, of course, out of the Land Grant—in consideration of these expenditures and the surrender of their line and purchases to the Land Grant road. It is scarcely probable that the Legislature will submit to any such extortionate demand, nor is it even likely to find favor with the Committee. The matter was not disposed of at their yesterday's session, but came up again to-day.

In the Assembly this morning, immediately after the journal was read, Mr. Farr, of Geneva, presented a very long and carefully drawn memorial from Geo. B. Smith, late Attorney General, and A. T. Gray, late Secretary of State, in reply to the unauthorized Report of the Joint Investigating Committee. It was read by the Clerk, the House listening attentively. The main points are, a denial of the several charges made against the Memorialists in the report, and a complaint of great injustice done to them by the Committee, in the conduct of the investigation, and in the character and contents of their report. The communication closed with the request that it should be printed with the Report of the Committee.

As soon as the reading was finished, Mr. Speaker HULL rose and moved the reference of the communication to the Select Committee. Judge POTTER seconded the motion and briefly characterized the communication as one tissue of gross falsehoods. Mr. FARR said if such was the character of the communication, he, too, desired to see it referred to the Select Committee, that they might have the desired opportunity of answering its alleged mis-statements, but he hoped it would be reported back within a few days.

Mr. Speaker HULL said he had no wish to delay the matter. But he wished the reference made, that the Committee might answer and expose the falsehoods of the Memorial. He (the Speaker) had been absent for a few days, most agreeably employed than in warring upon the Ex-School Land Commissioners, and during that absence violent attacks had been made upon him, in the papers and elsewhere, for his participation in the Report. Now he desired to say, that if such attacks was to be continued, he was ready for them. If the cry was "pitch in," he would "pitch in." If the Committee did not prove their Report true and the Memorial false, he would consent to be branded as a liar, and he pledged himself that the answer should be made in four days. The reference was then unanimously carried.

The strong and emphatic language of the Speaker made a decided and manifest impression upon the House; the more especially as the Argus here, the News at Milwaukee, and other Barstow papers, have violently attacked the Report, and endeavored to make their readers and the public believe that it was throughout a partisan, malicious, untruthful and unreliable document. Mr. Speaker HULL declares openly—and so do other Democrats on the committee, that the comments and censures of the report fall short of the facts disclosed by the evidence, and as the Argus and other Barstow prints seem disposed to provoke a free fight, he is inclined to gratify them.

Several bills and resolutions were introduced in the House, among them one to allow the Comptroller to issue to the Bank, 80 cents in currency for every dollar of Railroad Bonds, where the other provisions of our general Banking Law allowing Railroad Bonds to be taken as security for circulating notes, have been complied with.

The apportionment bill came in from the Senate and will doubtless pass the Assembly, without material amendments. It provides for 30 Senators and 93 Assemblymen—an increase of 5 Senators and 12 Assemblymen over the present number.

Mr. STARK, from the select Committee on the Fox and Wisconsin improvement, commenced reading a long report on the subject, but before proceeding far, gave way for a motion to adjourn, and the House, on a count, adjourned till 10 A. M. to-morrow. The report, I understand, is accompanied by a bill, designed to adjust all matters in dispute, and to save the State harmless, without doing injustice to the Improvement Company.

In the SENATE to-day, the apportionment bill was passed and a number of local bills disposed of, as also a bill, relating to the issue of Town bonds in aid of the Milwaukee & Beloit R. R.—The Senate adjourned over to 3 P. M., Monday, there being no business before it, requiring immediate consideration.

The weather to-day is decidedly September-ish; clear, cool and bracing. The Capital House is full to overflowing, but Mr. RUSSELL, by his attention and urbanity, makes his guests feel that there is ample room and warm welcome for all.

R. K.

SPEAKING BEFORE ITS TIME.—The Jefferson, Jefferson Co. Jeffersonian, democratic paper, says in relation to the subject of the Investigating Committee's Report:

It is to be hoped that every honest democratic paper in the State will boldly come out, and speak its sentiments without fear or favor, and denounce the perpetrators of the acts that have been placed by the investigating committee before the public by the investigating committee; and that the entire democracy of the State will expel such men from ever again being identified with the democratic party.

We are afraid the Jeffersonian has not got its cue yet, and speaks too quick. The News and Madison Argus, twin organs of regular democracy, charge that the Report of the Committee is false and unfair.

A MILWAUKEEAN IN CALIFORNIA.—We saw yesterday a letter from DEXTER TAFT, formerly proprietor of the U. S. Hotel in this city, but who has been in California for some years. He is the owner of an extensive hotel at the White Sulphur Springs, Napa Co. Cal., about 60 miles from San Francisco, and a place of great resort. Mr. Churchill, who was with Mr. Taft here, is also with him in California. He writes that his receipts average about $800 per day. Mr. Taft's partner in business is Mr. Brewster, and the firm has expended over $100,000 at the Springs. We learn that the former expects to return to Milwaukee before long.

Republicanism vs. Know Nothingism!

Our worthy Border Ruffian contemporary—the News—in its yesterday's issue, labors through a column to prove an amalgamation between the K. N.s and Republicans. This is the favorite string upon which the so-called Democratic presses love to harp. Finding how useless it is to fabricate lies concerning the private affairs and character of Fremont, the only effect of which has been to advance the cause of Freedom, and to recoil, with fearful violence, upon the heads of the base slanderers and vile calumniators—finding, we say, how more than useless such a course has been, the pro-slavery press of the North are now busily seeking to startle the foreigners, who are leaving the Hunker ranks in whole battalions—by asserting that a complete union has been effected between the Know Nothings and Republicans, and that this union is hostile to the rights and liberties of the Foreign population.

But this bug-bear will only meet the contempt it deserves. As well might it be said that a union existed between the Democrats and Republicans, because thousands upon thousands of these parties are now working, shoulder to shoulder in behalf of Freedom and Fremont. The truth is that the people of the North, forgetting party lines, and ignoring party prejudices, are rallying under a common banner, and fighting for a common end. The Republican party knows neither Whig nor Democrat, K. N. or Abolitionist. It is based upon a principle eternal as truth, and invites the co-operation of all liberty-loving men, without regard to their past connection. And hereby do we rejoice in the glorious fusion, for we recognize in it a general awakening throughout the North. "In union there is strength," and the union of the different and various political elements in favor of Fremont is, as it were, a harbinger of victory—an augury of triumphant success. As some river gathers into its bed the power and currents of multifarious streams until it swells into gigantic and majestic proportions, sweeping everything before it, so has the current of public opinion in the North set in favor of Fremont; and so is it daily acquiring new strength and ever increasing power, until it is fair to presume that it will sweep away all paltry opposition throughout every Free State, and achieve a telling victory in the election of Fremont the noble champion of Constitutional Freedom.

The gist of all the charges presented by the News is simply that Fremont is either a Know Nothing, or favorable to the principles of that organization. This, of course, is utterly false.—There is but one issue before the American people in the present contest. All others are absurd. The question is Freedom or Slavery—Free Kansas or Slave Kansas—Free Territories or Slave Territories. Fremont stands forth as the representative of Freedom—Buchanan as the representative of Slavery. The result of the election will go far towards deciding not only the fate of our vast Western domains, but of the country itself. If Buchanan is elected, we will have an administration of equal baseness and subserviency to the Southern oligarchy, as that of the one whose end draweth nigh. It will be, in spirit, but a continuation of the same, and cannot fail but sow fearful seeds of discord between the States. But if Fremont is elected—as we believe he will be—the country will rejoice in a Chief Magistrate who will be true to the highest interests of the Republic—who, while protecting the South in her constitutional claims, will allow no invasion of Northern rights, and who will do much towards restoring the Government to that state of purity in which it was bequeathed to us by our Revolutionary fathers. Up then, men of the North, up to your work! Be not deceived by the base and unfounded lies with which the Buchanan journals swarm. They only show the desperation of our opponents. Iowa and Vermont and Maine have spoken in thunder-tones for justice and the right, and we hope every Northern State will follow their example. It is time that the North should drive the defamers of man's sacred rights—the visitors of every holy principle—the janus-faced hypocrites—the traducers of our Constitution, from their ill gotten seats of power, and place therein men of honor and worth; and it is because we believe Northern men feel this in all its force that we are confident of the success of Fremont, and the inauguration of an Administration which will secure peace, prosperity, and happiness to all sections of the country, and mark an era upon which the future historian will love to dwell.

Who wants to pull Buchanan's Chestnuts out of the Fire.

The Ohio State Journal says:

A Mr. M. Williamson, of Muskingham county, a delegate to the Fillmore Convention, called on us yesterday afternoon. He informed us that he came here the day before a Fillmore man, but he was so disgusted with the efforts of the Buchanan men to use him as a cat's paw to pull out Buchanan chestnuts, that he will no longer act with the party. He says also that he knows a number of others who will not be used by trading politicians to accomplish their purposes. He is an old line Whig, opposed to the extension of slavery into free territory, and will vote for Fremont.

Sensible Mr. Williamson! We imagine that there are a good many Mr. Williamsons in this State, who will refuse to be fooled by the Fillmore leaders into throwing away their votes, in order to help Buchanan. We saw, yesterday, a large poster, printed at the News Job Office, calling a State Convention of the Fillmore and Donelson men—the Southern Know Nothings—to nominate an electoral ticket in this State.—We are curious to see the meeting of the conspirators.

The Ladies' Kansas Aid Society.

The ladies of Milwaukee met at Mrs. E. D. Holton's yesterday, and organized a Ladies' Kansas Aid Society auxiliary to the Ladies' State Society.

The following officers were elected:

President—Mrs. J. H. Tweedy.
Vice-President—Mrs. E. D. Holton.
Secretary—Mrs. A. J. Aikens.
Treasurer—Mrs. H. Bosworth.

The ladies are to meet at Mrs. E. D. Holton's next Thursday, at 1 o'clock to make up garments for Kansas sufferers. Sewing societies will be held frequently, at places previously appointed. Donations of clothes, cloth, or money may be sent to Mrs. E. D. Holton.

The Iron Man.

The Delaware Indians named Fremont the "Iron Man." Brooks & Co. threaten to seize the Archives and Treasury of the Government. They practically say, they will "rule or ruin."—In such crisis the Government wants no easy, pliable, soft spoken, fickle politician like Buchanan, who has been on all sides of all questions, who merges all principle, and independence in subscribing to a platform made by others. It wants no such man for President. We want an "Iron Man," fit for the occasion.

STEAMER FROM PRAIRIE DU CHIEN TO THE MIL. & MISS. R. R.—The Prairie du Chien Courier says that a steamer has just arrived, intended to be run on the Wisconsin River, between that place and the terminus of the Mil. & Miss. R. R., and that she had already run to within 2 miles of the Lone Rock Station. She draws but 10 inches water.

A GOOD NOMINATION.—CHAMPION S. CHASE, Esq., of Racine, a man of ability and influence, and one of the truest hearted Republicans in the land, was nominated for State Senator from Racine County, at the Convention which met yesterday.

RACINE & MISSISSIPPI R. R.—This road is now running to Beloit. We acknowledge the receipt of an invitation to attend the formal celebration of the opening, which takes place on the 1st of October. There will no doubt be a good time, and we should be glad to see it.

☞ J. F. FARNSWORTH, of Chicago, has been nominated as the Republican candidate for Congress in that district.

A Highly Interesting letter—Mr. Buchanan's Opinion about Slavery matters—The Aggressions of the North upon the South—The position of the Northern Democracy.

We lay before our readers to-day an authentic exposition of Mr. Buchanan's position upon the great issue of the day. It comes from the Huntsville (Alabama) Democrat, and the editor of that paper vouches for the writer as "a personal friend, a gentleman, of the highest respectability." This gentleman has visited Mr. Buchanan, and hastens to report to the editor the result of his conference with the candidate. He says:

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 6.

MY DEAR SIR:—I spent two hours with Buchanan yesterday, at Wheatland. His grounds are beautifully and tastefully arranged, but his house is plain and unpretending in the extreme—everything has the air of unostentatious democracy. But the man himself is the very impersonation of unaffected Republicanism. I was never more agreeably disappointed in my life.—He gave us a cordial and frank reception, and talked with us with the freedom of an old acquaintance. I really felt as if I had known him all my life. He said the issue involved in this election was the Union of these States as equals. That the South had submitted to the aggressions of the Abolitionists with a patience that might well challenge the admiration of the world, and considering the freesoiling propensities, was difficult to understand. He ridiculed the doctrine of Squatter Sovereignty, and said that the South had now, for the first time in the history of the country, obtained from the Government the concession of the true principles, viz: that the people of a Territory had the right, when they came to form a State Constitution, to say whether they would or would not have Slavery. That by this legislation Congress had admitted that the power was with the people, and not in Congress, and the only sensible rule was, that this could be exercised by the people only when they came to form a State Government, preparatory to admission into the Union. I give you almost his very words. He said, if he should be elected, he felt satisfied the Slavery question would be finally settled, provided he could carry a portion of the New England States, or the State of New York. In other words, if he were elected by a national vote, what he would do in the premises would have a national support, and the strength of Free Sollism, which is sectional, would be dispersed. The truth is, Mr. Buchanan is as sound on this question as was Mr. Calhoun, and the Northern Democracy are better Southern men to-day, than many Democrats even at the South. Whatever they may have done heretofore, now they meet the question boldly, and defend the institution of Slavery with a fearlessness that we might do well to imitate. They do not even apologize for it on the ground that is recognized in the Constitution; but they say it is right—that God himself established it, and that it has the Bible for its foundation. If we do not sustain these men in defence of our institutions, we deserve eternal infamy. The contest is obviously between Buchanan and Fremont. Fillmore is not in the race. No man here pretends to say that he is.

On the whole, therefore, I consider his election beyond peradventure—and what I regret is, that there can be found in the whole South a single man who will not vote for him. If they could see him, and hear him talk, I firmly believe he would get every Southern vote.

I have scribbled this off hurriedly, I fear you will not be able to read it.

Yours, truly
W. B. FIGURES, Esq., Huntsville, Ala.

There people of Wisconsin! is not that a suggestive document? Democrats of Wisconsin! is that your candidate? Is that even your construction of the Platform, Mr. Buchanan's other self?

Only yesterday we alluded briefly to a document which has been widely circulated hereabouts, signed by various office-holders, as an "Appeal to Foreign-Born Voters." In that document, the signers, in allusion to this Squatter Sovereignty, say:

But the Republican party denies the exercise of this right to the Territories; and insists that Congress should control the municipal law of the Territories. The Democratic party concedes the right to States and Territories alike, as resting on the same principle. * * * * *

Territories are incipient States. Men in the Territories have the same natural right to self-government, as men in the States. This is the principle of "Squatter Sovereignty," so much denounced by the Republicans. * * * * *

The Republican party has appealed to Northern horror of Slavery, to induce the North to violate the great principle of self-government in the Territories. * * * * * *

* * * * We violate the spirit of the Constitution and the principle of free government, when we dictate to any State or Territory to have it or not to have it.

But it is not necessary to make quotations.—The fact is notorious, that the democracy hereabouts do maintain that the first few people who settle in a Territory have a right to admit or exclude Slavery, as they think proper. Mr. Buchanan, however, when talking to a Southern man, boils the track! The very platform himself kicks over the Platform! He tells them that it is only when they come to form a State Government, that they can determine whether or not they will have Slavery!

As to Mr. Buchanan's general attachment to the principles of the Ultra-Slavery Extension party, and the position of the Northern Buchanan Democracy on the subject, the letter is sufficiently explicit and suggestive, and we commend the whole of it to the careful consideration of our readers.

A Botanical Garden.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 15, 1856.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—One of the beautiful squares of this city, surrounded by a high iron fence, covered with a smooth carpet of green grass, with clean hard walks, and shaded by noble old forest trees, has been selected for the next exhibition of the Pennsylvania Horticultural Society, which is to be held this week. I regret that business compells me to leave before it opens, and that I shall not be able to see how it compares with our own. To protect the grass, nearly the whole square is covered with a temporary floor, and the ample canvass covers entirely many of the trees. It is the general opinion that this exhibition will exceed all former ones in brilliancy and extent of usefulness. If these Horticultural Societies could be induced to establish a public botanical garden in or near each of our principal cities, they would be conferring a vast amount of good, that would be continued from age to age as a monument of their patriotism. Nearly all the principal cities and large towns of Europe, especially on the continent, are provided with such establishments, adequately supported, and adding very much to the comfort, enjoyment, good taste and sociable qualities of the people. In Europe all have their public places of resort—in this country we have our tippling houses. Shall we not profit by their good works, and set at once about the establishment of such public places, in which shall be cultivated such plants as are suited to the soil and climate; and in which experiments may be made to ascertain the adaptation of the useful or ornamental plants of other countries. We have no such place in the United States yet—and the city that shall endow the first one will be entitled to the greatest honor as a benefactor of the country.

The example would be speedily followed by other places. It would be the pride of citizens when abroad to gather up seeds and plants to be sent home to such a garden, and by means of exchanges, a large number of plants can readily be introduced that might not otherwise be done. Who will begin?

HON. JOHN F. POTTER was nominated on the 11th, by the Republicans of the First (Milwaukee) District, for Congress. Judge POTTER is at present a member of the Assembly from Walworth Co., and also Co. Judge of that County. He is an able and popular man, and we predict that under the lead of FREMONT, DAYTON and POTTER the First District will be redeemed, and that Wisconsin will send an unbroken delegation to the 35th Congress, who will stand up for the rights of the freemen of the North, against the encroachments of the Slave power.—Mineral Pt. Tribune.

That is so, neighbor of the Tribune! The First District will be redeemed!

DISCOURAGED.—The Buchanan democracy of Jefferson Co. are to hold a Convention on the 27th, to re-nominate county officers. The Jeffersonian, in an article on the subject, makes the following melancholy suggestion:

"It is hoped that every town will be represented in Convention, if there are Democrats enough to make a sufficient number of delegates."

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

A Flag for the Barton Fremont Club.

WEST BEND, Sept. 15, 1856.

MESSRS EDITORS:—The ladies of our neighboring village, Barton, have the true spirit of their Revolutionary mothers of '76. Last Friday evening they manifested it, by presenting to the Fremont Club of that place a beautiful flag, which cost $10, with the request "that it should be kept unfurled until liberty shall triumph over slave-democracy."

The flag was made wholly of needle-work, the stripes, stars, eagle and letters. Over the American Eagle were inscribed, "Fremont and free Kansas."

Another thing worthy of note is that the Barton Club have a Glee Club, which discourses sweet music at its meetings; large numbers of the members of which are ladies.

The Republicans of Barton are up and doing, and with the generous assistance of the ladies, are bound to prosper; and next November, the good majority that Barton will give for Fremont and Dayton, will show that their efforts have not been in vain.

Yours for Fremont and Freedom, D.

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

Fremont Club at Neosho.

NEOSHO, Dodge Co., Wis., Sep. 17, '56.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—We last night had an enthusiastic Fremont meeting here, which was organized by calling Jas. H. Persons Esq., to the chair, and appointing Wm. McDowell, Secretary. Speeches were made by Messrs. L. S. Van Orden, Thos. King, D. W. Davis, D. N. Minor, and Joseph Armitage, after which a Fremont Club was organized. The following officers were elected.

DENISON BAKER, President.
DENISON BAKER, Vice President.
D. W. DAVIS, Secretary.
JOHN L. MANN, Treasurer.

Resolved, That the proceedings of the meeting be published in the Milwaukee Sentinel, Milwaukee American and Free Democrat.

What the Senate will be.

The Senate of the United States, the great obstacle to the success of the recent movement for the purification and reform of the national Government, will exhibit a more encouraging aspect in the Congress which will co-operate with the administration of President Fremont. The healthful process of thinning out has already begun to tell upon the ranks of the Buchanan party in that body, and will soon practically destroy its pro-slavery majority.

In consequence of vacancies, the Senate now consists of fifty-nine members, who, according to their presidential predilections, stand thus:

For Buchanan.....37
For Fremont.....14
For Fillmore.....7

The following is a list of Senators whose terms will expire March 4th, 1857:

Hamlin,	Maine	[F.]	to be succeeded by a Fremonter.
Foote,	Vt.	[F.]	" " " "
Sumner,	Mass.	[F.]	" " " "
James,	R. I.	[R.]	" " " "
Toucey,	Conn.	[D.]	" " Dixon "

Mason,	Va.	[D.]	re-elected.
Adams,	Miss.	[D.]	to be succeeded by Jeff. Davis [D
Jones,	Tenn.	[D.]	" " by a Buchananer.

Rusk,	Texas.	[D.]	" " by a Buchananer.
Dodge,	Wis.	[D.]	" " by a Fremonter.
Weller,	Cal.	[D.]	" " " "

There are at present three vacancies in the Senatorial representation of Indiana, California, and Missouri which, if filled, will add one to the Fillmore and two to the Fremont Senators. Thus, the Senate may be expected to stand at the beginning of the Thirty-fifth Congress as follows:

For Buchanan.....36
For Fremont.....23
For Fillmore.....3

As the Fillmore men of the South, unlike their associates on the North, adopt their present course as the only mode by which they can plausibly resist the ultra slavery policy of the administration, there is no reason to believe that a Republican President would receive their support in an issue with the disunion agitators and secessionalists, who, like the Buchanan's Man Friday, Slidell, of Louisiana, say that the Union ought to be sundered, in case of Fremont's election.—Sustained by these, and more rational Buchaniers in the Senate, the policy of our next President is not likely to fail from the opposition of those who make such wry faces at the prospect of his elevation. With the Executive, the House of Representatives, and a practical majority of the Senate again at them, their hostilities would be about as potent as the arrows which Herodotus tells us the Scythian barbarians used to discharge at the God of Storms.—N. Y. Tri. Post.

Border Ruffianism in Wisconsin.

We copy from the Jefferson Co. Republican the following account of the attempt to silence Mr. BERNHARD, the eloquent German from Watertown, who has come out for Fremont:

A SPICE OF BORDER RUFFIANISM.

Hon. Theodore Bernhard of Watertown was once elected member of the legislature, and was city clerk, as a democrat, before democracy became only a other name for servility, and the extension of slavery. But, in common with thousands and tens of thousands of honest true democrats, Mr. Bernhard refused to swallow the great doughface Buchanan, and the platform of the slaveholders and land thieves upon which he stands; and came out for free soil, free speech, freedom, and Fremont. We suppose Mr. Bernhard had a right to do this, under our constitution and law, and that he had the further right to meet his fellow-citizens, and tell them his reasons for so doing, or anything not unlawful, which he chose to tell them.

But, on the day he was to speak here at the Fremont Rally, three persons, calling themselves men, and no pleasure gentlemen, came here from Watertown, expressly to put him down and prevent his speaking.

These three ruffians found three or four kindred spirits in Jefferson, (God be praised there are few such!) and together, they arranged to give Mr. Bernhard a cow bell serenade, and some of them offered to bet Mr. Bernhard would not make a speech here, and dared not do it.—The cow bells lay in a bar-room in town, and would no doubt have been used, but for the authority of the landlord; and when Mr. Bernhard was passing from dinner to the speaker's stand, he was hooted after, and insulted by these men. Soon after the speaking commenced, they came to the ground and amused themselves by saying aloud, in reply to the speaker—"that's a d—d lie," and similar gentlemanly remarks. One gentleman (?) holding an important office in the county of Jefferson, made himself conspicuous by such remarks, to the astonishment of all present. When Mr. Schurz began to speak in German, they listened pretty quietly, but after he closed, and Mr. Theodore Bernhard went to a separate stand, so that speaking in German and English at the same time might be going on, some of these men (?) went around the Court House to the wagon in which Mr. B. was speaking, calling out in German, to "take him from the wagon, as we are informed by those who understand the German language."

The great mass of Germans present, to their credit, crowded round the stand, and kept the ruffians back, and after making some noise to stop Mr. B., the Marshals drove them from the ground; and they appropriately gave three cheers for "Buck and Brook," the great border ruffian leaders, and sneaked off, leaving Mr. Bernhard to make his speech, and he returned home unmolested, so far as we know.

GRAND CELEBRATION AT BELOIT,

RACINE & MISSISSIPPI R. R. TO THAT PLACE.

Ample arrangements will be made to convey all who may wish to participate in the festivities of that important occasion.

The train will leave Racine at 8 o'clock A. M., arriving at Beloit at 12 M.; and returning leave Beloit at 9 o'clock P. M.

HENRY S. DURAND, Pres't.

RACINE, Sept. 18th, '56.

☞ We admit the issue. The triumph of slavery in Kansas will be a defeat of free labor. The free laborers are foreigners and are not to be compared with our slaves.—Richmond Enquirer.

Such are the sentiments avowed by the leading Buchanan papers of the South. It contends for the superiority of the slave over the German, and Irish, and Swedish, and Norwegian laborers of the country, and prefers that their interests shall be unobserved rather than that of the thousands who seek a home on our soil, from the old world.—Chicago Dem.

☞ It is stated that the steamboats Rip Van Winkle and Commodore, running from Troy to New York, have taken, this season, at least 3000 horses to the New York market. Most of these horses are bought up by the omnibus and city railroad lines, and worked to death in six months.

Reply of Commissioner McGarry to Mr. Laith.

Mr. MCGARRY asks a space in our columns for a reply to the charges brought against him by Mr. Laith of Waupun, in regard to some of his official conduct. We of course yield a space for that purpose, but omit the personalities of the letter.

We wish here to say that, so far as our columns are concerned, the controversy must stop here. We cannot afford the space demanded of us by the parties concerned, and the complaints and charges and defence had better go before the Governor, whose duty it is to examine and decide.

Mr. McGarry says:

* * * * * * *

Mr. Laith, speaking of the contracts let by me, says I sent Mr. Amedon word that I would not let him have a contract for sand, because he signed a petition for my removal. Permit me to say that I never said so. I never heard that Mr. Amedon was opposed to me, or that he signed a petition for my removal, until now. I always looked upon Mr. Amadon as an excellent man, and he and I were on the best of terms, but his sand was too coarse. I could not use it in the main building if I got it for nothing.

There were three bids for the sand contract, as follows:—Mr. Brooks 12cts per bushel, Mr. Spilane 11½ cts, and Mr. Murray 11 cts. Mr. Murray being the lowest, of course, got the contract. So Mr. Laith stands convicted of lie No. 1.

Mr. Laith states that Mr. A. Ingersol was the lowest bidder for the stone contract, but his bid was noticed. Mr. Laith lies again. Mr. Ingersol did not make any proposal for the stone contract. He gave in a proposal for the lime contract, and being the lowest bidder got it. Mr. Laith stands convicted of lie No. 2.

Mr. Spilane was the lowest bidder for the stone contract; Laith's talk about my distributing it among my friends is another lie. Mr. Kneeland proposed to furnish Rubble stone for $4,25 per cord, and Spilane proposed to furnish them for $4,00—being the lowest bidder he consequently got the contract.

Laith's talk about the Cells and my brutality is equally false. Those who are acquainted with me know what such a charge is worth. I am far more likely to err on the side of humanity than against it. Mr. Laith is the same old coon that publicly and brutally abused General Starks during the whole of his administration. He wrote petition after petition to the Governor for his removal, because of his humane treatment towards the prisoners. He abuses me ostensibly for my brutality, but his real cause is, because I am a foreigner.

About here Laith is known and understood to be what you might call a Know Nothing—in favor of perpetuating and extending Slavery in the South, and of enslaving foreigners in the North.

E. MCGARRY.

STATE PRISON OFFICE,
Waupun, Sept. 15.

The Nomination of Judge Potter.

From the Kenosha Telegraph.

He is and has been for years devoted to true Republican principles. No man can be truer, firmer or more zealous and courageous in advancing and sustaining those principles than will he.

As for ability, he has abundance of it, as he has clearly indicated time and again, in the performance of his legislative duties. No abler speeches have been made on the floor, of either body, than Judge Potter has made in connection with the exciting questions which were before the Legislature last winter.

In short, Judge Potter is just the man, in whatever light you choose to consider him.—Frank, honest, intelligent, able, fearless, bold, courageous, good natured, and benevolent, imbued with the most humane sentiments on all subjects, emphatically one of the people, a laboring man with his brow, sharing in all their toils, awake to all their wants, sympathizing with all their needs and sufferings, in no respect a politician, a schemer, an intriguer, a seeker after office, he is just the man who is entitled to the support of the people. He is a man of the people, and should be the people's man, as he will be. We predict that he will make his mark on the floor of Congress, and that higher honors will be thrust upon him.

From the Delavan Messenger.

We have formed an acquaintance with Judge Potter, at Madison and have, in common with all the Republicans, admired his unbending integrity, his straight-forward honesty—his diligence and manly independence. He is a man of back bone. He is a ready debater, a good speaker, and is at all times at his post. His friends can rely on him; his opponents respect him, and knaves fear him. No man in the Assembly has wielded a wider influence; and the same diligence, energy and fearless integrity will distinguish him, if we send him to Congress, as we can, and will, if all do their duty.

Setting all party feeling aside, John F. Potter is a man of four times the abilities of Jackson Hadley. The latter is a prosy and stammering speaker, he is all bound up in party, and will descend to any depths his party may require.—Nothing talented or brilliant in him. It was Barstow's influence that procured his nomination. He is a mere tool of a party, and a clique in that party. We speak now of his position as a politician and candidate for Congress.

POLICE COURT, SEPTEMBER 19.

BEFORE CALVIN WALWORTH, POLICE JUSTICE.

David Carney, disorderly, fine $3,00.

Michael Sullivan, fast driving on bridge, fined $2,00

William Amagh, drunk and disorderly, fined $8,00

William Allen, disorderly, fine $3,00.

John Schuster and Robert Actaliffen, charged with committing an assault and battery, case continued by consent, to November 15th, at 10 A. M., on account of the absence of an important witness.

STEALING A WATCH AND MONEY.—Two men named Thomas Emmerson and William Brugh were charged with stealing a watch and $13 37 from John Frederick on A warrant was issued against them and the matter sent to the Grand Jury for their further action.

THE CERT DEMOCRATIC LAW.—In the forenoon a German named Frederick Blake, was brought down from jail, where he had been confined for six months, because he could not pay a fine of $10, for stealing stove wood to the value of ten cents, belonging to Ames Sawyer The man was discharged from his imprisonment, on his swearing that he had not at any time during his imprisonment etc., any personal or other property with which he could pay his fine."

We have frequently called the public attent on to this infamous law, and had hoped that it would have long since been repealed. Look at the workings of thisvery statute in this case The Court has administered the law as it is on the Statute Book. Two Germans steal a small quantity of stove wood, both are guilty, and both should be punished Each is fined for his guilt One has them money to pay the fine, he pays it, and runs at large The other has no money and goes to jail—he says there are months for stealing "ten cents worth of stove wood." No! but he could not had not $10 to pay the fine with We have now to be ushered in "ten cent democracy." At "Old Hickory" standard of the value of labor on a unfortunate German should have stayed in jail but 360 days at most It was a democratic legislature that made this law, and certainly use to keep it on the statute book

Query? Is it a Constitutional law? Sec. 6, Article 1, of the Constitution of this State reads thus: "Excessive fines shall not be required, nor shall cruel and unusual punishments inflicted." If after this man had been imprisoned for three months, for stealing ten cents worth of stove wood, would not a habeas corpus have released him, on account of his unconstitutional right, guarding him against "a cruel or unusual punishment?" Lawyer can answer the question for themselves

STEALING A STOVE.—A woman named Rosina Allen was brought up for stealing a box stove, from the dock of the American Transportation Co found guilty and fined $5 and costs, which was paid

Jacob Felder, for fast driving on Walker's Point Bridge was fined $1,00

Michael Bartung, fined $5,00 for fast driving in the street. So much after the fine was paid the defendant came back and demanded a warrant against one of the policemen, named Capron, alleging that the officer had insulted him On enquiring into the matter, it appeared, from the statement of the applicant, that the officer was searching for a stolen horse, answering the description of the one that Bartung had, and took hold of the bridle to examine the horse, when a scuffle ensued, and Bartung was choked off. The Court referred him to the Chief of Police, telling he would do right in the matter.

New Publications.

We have on our table several valuable new publications, sent us by Messrs. J. A. HALL & Co., and by publishers for whom they are agents The pressure upon our columns of late has prevented us from noticing them here tofore

LIFE IN THE INTERIOR in its relations to the Church and State, and to the Ministers' Home and Family Circles, Oberlin & Co., publishers

We have been very much interested in a rather hasty perusal of this book, with the frankness and simplicity with which the writer presents home his facts and illustrations to the reader's heart, nothing extenuating, setting down naught in malice. The book will be read by thousands of ministers, min sters' wives, and ministers' people too, and recognized as giving their own personal experience.

OLIVER CROMWELL. England a Great Protector; by William Herbert Mixer, Oliver & Co., publishers

This is a new and revised edition of Herbert's first historical romance It interested deeply a large circle of readers when first published Cromwell's peculiarities of character have lost nothing of interest in the lapse of years, and in the multitude of books there is yet room for another, recalling those days of thrilling adventure when Cavalier and Roundhead were at issue

AT HOME AND ABROAD, or Things and Thoughts in America and Europe; by MARGARET FULLER OSSOLI, edited by her brother, Arthur B Fuller. CROSBY, NICHOLS & Co., Boston.

This is a valuable acquisition to the literature of the day, a memento of one of the wor d's brightest and best, which the world could not afford to lose The editor has compiled, in the compass of a volume of some 459 pages, some of the sketches of his lamented sister's travels in the West in 1843, (when she visited Milwaukee and the Summit lakes,) together with the narratives of the scenes in Rome in the revolution of '48, her observations upon Art, &c., down almost to the time when she embarked on board the fated ship which never landed her at home among her kindred and friends The book deserves, and the reputation of the author will secure it, a large circulation.

ENGLISH TRAITS, by RALPH WALDO EMERSON, Phillips, Sampson & Co., Boston; 5th edition

Whatever Mr EMERSON chooses to write will, of course, be read. Boston people will read, because he is a Boston man, if for no other reason As a member of the "Mutual Admiration Society" of that ancient burgh, of course, his writings will be popular New England will read him, because he is herein cut from her own granite, though, perhaps, her lines are variously fair white, and rose-veined, and speckling representations hitter All will read him—a great many have read this book already—and as many opinions as expressed of Emerson's John Bull as there are readers When we get time, we mean to read the book ourselves

WHITTINGTON & Co have this last book for sale

BRITISH SYMPATHY FOR FREMONT.—We overheard, yesterday, in the street, a debate as to the truth of an article alleged to have been republished, from the London Morning Chronicle, deploring the election of Fremont to the Presidency of America, claiming that it would be "the first blow towards the separation of the States," when the one man made this remark in reply to the other—"I'm no betting character, but I'll give you one hundred dollars, if you'll produce a copy of the Chronicle containing that article." We won't, perfectly satisfied that the gentleman will never have to pay the $100

CITY DESPATCH POST.—JUST THE THING WANTED.—It will be seen by the card of Messrs BLAKESLEE & Co., that they intend to organize and put in operation immediately, a Despatch Post in our city. We hail this useful enterprise with pleasure, and heartily wish it success. Messrs BLAKESLEE & Co. bring good references as to their integrity, and ability to push the enterprise along successfully See their card

Mr. Jas T. Gony, Waukegan, Ill
R Hart, Rochester, N. Y.

WINES AND FOREIGN LIQUORS.—By their card in our columns, it will be seen that Messrs. C. L. SPANGENBERG & Co., succeed J. FERROW in the importation and sale of superior foreign liquors. Mr. FERROW has built up a wide reputation for his concern, which we doubt not will be sustained by his successors.

FOR BUFFALO.—The propeller Forest Queen will leave Milwaukee this evening, at 7 o'clock, for Buffalo. For passage apply to JOHN GRIFFIN, on Huron Street, near the American Express Co's office

☞ Rev. Dr. EATON, President of Madison University, N. Y., will preach in the Wisconsin St. Baptist Church to-morrow evening

☞ Ald. HANEFEL denies explicitly that he was the owner of the house of ill fame referred to in the case of DAVIS vs the city, in the Circuit Court.

TO LUMBER MANUFACTURERS AND DEALERS.

VALUABLE Property at private sale, situated on the Straits opposite Mackinaw, and on the Sheboygan River, containing about 18,000 acres of land, a large portion of which is heavily timbered with best quality of pine. The improvements on this property are, 1st—the village of DUNCAN, on the main land South Channel or pass, is a large steam Mill, of modern construction, with Sliding Machine, Shingle and Lath Machines, and capable of manufacturing fifty thousand feet of lumber in 24 hours. Also, Hotel, Land Office, Store, and sundry dwelling houses and Smith shop. The Sheboygan Steam Mill, on and near the mouth of Sheboygan River. The Sheboygan Water Mill, one mile from the mouth, with dwelling houses, barns, &c. At Duncan a Pier is erected, extending out to a sufficient depth of water to accommodate any vessel navigating the Lakes This is admitted by navigators, by reason of the Bay and Pier, to be the best Lake Harbor between Detroit and Chicago—It is a desirable Wooding and Coaling Point, being on the direct route for Propellers and sailing vessels. This property is desirable as a point at which a town must soon grow up, as the country back of it is fast filling up, for many miles, with settlers.

The Sheboygan Water Mill has the entire power of Sheboygan River, a never failing stream of great volume, which never freezes, the dam being at the falls of the river, is easily kept in repair This is the most valuable water privilege in the State of Michigan, north of Grand Rapids.

To a company or individuals, desirous of entering into the lumber trade, this property offers rare inducements, with a certainty of greatly increased value in a very few years, and will be sold much below original cost, or present value, to close a concern.

For terms, which will be accommodating, apply to JOHN A DUNCAN, Executor, &c Wilmington, Delaware,

In fact there is every comfort and convenience about the house one wants or desires It was built in the very best of manner It was not built to sell, but owing to unforeseen events, the owner is compelled to sell it, owing to other arrangements and engagements which he has entered into The said house is the most genteel and handsomest in the Fifth Ward, on Marshall st It is useless for me to say that Marshall st is one of the pleasant and fashionable streets in the city of Milwaukee, and there is no street property in so valuable and the neighborhood to desirable. The grading of the streets, and the paving of the gutters in all completed In a word it is a very choice place, and it must and will be sold for the highest and best for cash So all who want a good house in a good neighborhood, attend the sale A few days will be given after the sale the title to allow the purchaser to raise the money which, if he wants he, no doubt, can easily do by giving a mortgage on said property But ten per cent cash will be required to be paid down, at the day of sale sep20 CALEB WALL

Office 230 East Water Street, 2 Doors South of Walker House.

AMONG the extensive amount of Real Estate I have for sale, I would respectfully call the attention of those in search of a largely paying investment to a small lot, 9 of 20 acres Said lots situated one mile and a half West of the city, and besides being handsomely timbered, commands the most beautiful view of the city, lake and harbor The soil cannot be surpassed, and on the whole, this tract of land is unequalled in the county of Milwaukee for beauty and availability. Land, the same distance North of the city, is selling at from $200 to $4,00 per acre, and there would be no reason why the land I offer should not be more valuable, on account of the superior city of location and beauty I will sell it, however, at about half the above figures, or exchange for city property.
